4. You ... drive for a year in Britain with an international license.

3. Read the dialogue and mark the sentences as true (T) or false (F).

A: Hi, Ben! How were your exams?

B: Nice of you to ask about them. Everything's all right, thanks.

A: Is it? You look worried. Is there anything wrong?

B: No, everything's all right, but when we were waiting for the results of the exam, we spoke about our future and our career plans. You know, I was the only one who hadn't decided yet.

A: Well, let's try to find out what kind of job could be suitable for you. I've got a special test that might give us the answer. All you need to do is to answer some questions. The first one is: "Would you like to work in an office or be out and about during working hours?"

B: It depends... But no, I think I would rather work inside. It could be difficult to be outside if the weather is bad. But I want to have the opportunity to be out in good weather, too.

A: Are good working conditions, job satisfaction and stability important to you?

B: Yes, I want my job to be exciting but not very stressful. Stability is very important to me, too. But I don't want to work at the weekends or in summer.

A: And how about job satisfaction? What does that mean to you?

B: To me, job satisfaction isn't just a quick promotion or good money. I want to feel useful.

A: Would you prefer working with machines or with people?

B: When I was little, I enjoyed taking things apart to see how they worked. But now communicating with people is much more important to me. I want to work with nice and friendly people.

A: OK. That's enough. Let's have a look at the test results. Well, there is a long list of jobs which meet your requirements. And the job of babysitter is at the top of the list.

B: Babysitter?! I have never thought about babysitting, but I don't mind working with children. I'm very good at sports and the job of a coach has a lot of advantages. I'll definitely try to learn more about it.

1. Ben has passed his exams.

2. Ben has no career plans and it worries him.

3. Ben wants to have any job that allows him to work outside in any weather because he hates being in an office.

1. Historically, Canada has been influenced by British, French and aboriginal cultures and traditions. Many Canadians see their country as a multicultural mosaic — a collection of several regional, aboriginal, and ethnic subcultures. For example, aboriginal peoples continue to influence the Canadian identity through their language, art, and music. At the same time English influence is stronger in English Canada while French influence dominates in French Canada.

2. Ottawa, the capital of Canada, is one of the country's most attractive cities. It's the public face of Canada for many people so the city has been kept lovely and welcoming. It has many parks, museums, art galleries and universities. Some of Ottawa's historic buildings go back to the early 1800s.

3. About 77 per cent of Canadians live in cities and towns. The largest city in Canada is Toronto. If you ever go there, you'll see one of the world's tallest buildings, the CN Tower. Toronto is the country's business centre and home to the largest companies and banks.

4. Canada's official languages are English and French. But many other languages are spoken there, including Inuktitut (the language of the Inuit, or Eskimos) and other Canadian Indian languages. Canadian Indians are also known as First Nations people.

5. In 1999, one half of Canada's territory was officially returned to the Inuit people. The name of this new territory is Nunavut. In Inuktitut it means "Our land". The Inuit live throughout most of the Canadian Arctic and subarctic in the northern third of Quebec, in Labrador and in various parts of the Northwest Territories, particularly around the Arctic Ocean.

6. The Vikings first landed in North America well before Christopher Columbus was even born. It happened about 1,000 years ago. But the territory of Canada had been inhabited for thousands of years before the Vikings arrived. The first people came to Canada from Siberia. It happened in the middle of the Ice Age, about 27,000 years ago. They crossed a bridge of land which joined Siberia and Alaska.

7. The Yukon is a territory in northwest Canada where the Klondike Gold Rush took place in the 1890s. Jack London came to the Yukon in September of 1897. He was 21 years old and full of hopes to find gold. Although he didn't become rich, he later turned his Klondike adventures into fame and fortune with his legendary short stories and books.

Seaside Holidays Still Tops

Lazing around on a beach (1) is still the favourite holiday for Britons. And most of the British people (2) prefer to do it at home, despite the popularity of foreign sunspots. According to one of the national surveys, nearly 60 per cent of holidaying Britons head for the seaside and only (3) a third of those go abroad. Forty per cent of them take one holiday a year, but (4) 21 per cent go away several times. Last year 39 per cent didn't have a holiday at all, explaining that they (5) couldn't afford one. A third of those who went away (6) chose to stay at hotels or guest houses. A fifth preferred to camp or caravan. The least (7) favourite holiday was the two-wheeled sort cycling or touring by motorbike.
